

Welcome to the Vance minute. I'm Joe B. Wiles with the Public Affairs Office...

A key spouse is a vital part of every organization at Vance Air Force Base. She, or he, fills multiple roles. They support families of deployed Airmen, welcome new members to the unit and help ease the transition to life in Enid.

Twenty-four key spouses gathered at the Vance Club recently where senior leaders honored them with a luncheon, and recognized one as the Air Education and Training Command Key Spouse of the Year.

Sarina Houston, wife of Capt. Jake Houston, an instructor pilot with the 3rd Flying Training Squadron, was singled out for going above and beyond in her work as a key spouse.

All the key spouses at the luncheon received a yellow rose and a copy of Mac Anderson's book, "The Secret to Living is Giving."

The 2014 Air Force Assistance Fund campaign ended April 11th with Team Vance contributing a total of $34,000. The donations will go to support several Air Force charities.

That's your Vance Minute...have a great Air Force day.
